

ESPINOSA-DURAPAU ENDOWMENT FOR FACULTY AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT

The Espinosa-DuRapau Endowment for Faculty and Staff Development is established by Victor J. Durapau, Jr. Ph.D. '58 CJ in the St. Aloysius Century Foundation to support Brother Martin High School.

Dr. DuRapau, Jr. has established the endowment in memory of his parents (Antoinette DuRapau and Victor J. DuRapau, Sr.), his sister (Sr. Theresa Mary DuRapau, RSM, Ph.D.) and his aunt (Leonora Espinosa McGinty Zaumeyer). Dr. DuRapau, Sr. Theresa and Lenora have a total of more than 125 years in teaching and research at all levels from elementary school to university.

Vic, Jr. taught for 42 years before his retirement at both the high school and collegiate level. He finished his career as a professor at Xavier University in New Orleans. Because of his and his families involvement in education and fond memories of his teachers at Cor Jesu High School, Vic wanted to give back and establish a fund to support and promote teacher and staff development and continuing education.

The purpose of the endowment is to provide financial support for Brother Martin teacher and staff development and continuing education, as well as the pursuit of advance degrees by. This can include, but is not limited to bringing in presenters, attending conferences and seminars and tuition for additional certification or advanced degrees.

Contributions to the Espinosa-DuRapau Endowment for Faculty and Staff Development can be made to the St. Aloysius Century Foundation.
