

Brother Martin High School
Dance/Event Dress Code
2019-20

The Administration and/or faculty of Brother Martin will make all final judgements on the appropriateness of questionable attire. The dress code will be strictly enforced, and regrettably if a student or his date does not adhere to these guidelines, he/she will not be admitted.

For confirmation on whether a dress/outfit is appropriate, please email a picture of yourself in the dress/outfit to Ms. Kelly Wild kwild@brothermartin.com Assistant Principal for Student Services.

*All grooming rules as stated in the Brother Martin Student Handbook must be followed. Clothes must be neatly pressed. Thrift shop outfits that draw undue attention to the student, and are not appropriate for the event, are not allowed. All accessories including shirts and cummerbunds must conform to conventional formal dress specifications. Hats, bandanas, or headwear of any kind are not permitted. No one may bring props, knapsacks, or book bags to a dance or event. If anyone, a student, his date, or a girl attending the function leaves a dance, then he/she will not be permitted to return. The consumption of any beverage not supplied at the dance or event is not permitted. And of course there is no alcohol or illegal substances allowed on the premises of any dance or event. (SEE SPECIFIC REGULATIONS LISTED BELOW.)
