

2026 Band Awards

The following Seniors have committed to the Band Program by participating in the Crusader Band all 5 years of their Brother Martin careers and have earned the Seniority and Achievement Award: Liam Burke, Logan Drouet, Tim Hilbun, Caleb Patterson, Ethan Tran, and Aiden Uria.

We award the following Seniors with the Senior Merit Award and appreciate their exceptional commitment and dedication to our Program: Jacob Pichon, Grayson Pruitt, and Aiden Uria.

The National School Marching Award recognizes contributions on the field. It honors the music contributions and dedication of student leaders whose example inspires other students:
Liam Burke.

The National Band Leadership Award recognizes students who take a generous and selfless approach to leading their bands: Hezekiah Fredricks.

In recognition of your unwavering dedication to and outstanding contributions to the musical excellence and spirit of the Brother Martin Crusader Band are our Outstanding Musicians:
Logan Drouet and Caleb Patterson.

In recognition of your exceptional leadership, unwavering dedication, and outstanding service in the Crusader Band is our Service Award recipient: Kyle Morris.

The Director's Award honors the dedication and commitment of a leader in the Band. This young man has grown into the role of the Crusader Band's figurehead; he is our Drum Major Ethan Tran.

The John Philip Sousa Award, named for the great band leader and "March King," is the pinnacle of achievement in a high school band. Introduced in 1955 to honor the top student in the high school band, the Sousa Award recognizes superior musicianship and outstanding dedication: our Sousa Award goes to Tim Hilbun!
